

ANNA-MARIE WINTER

306.586.3952

annamarie.winter@sasktel.net

PERSONAL STATEMENT

As a designer, instructor, lecturer, author and fiber artist I believe that embroidery and other forms of needle art should be respected as an art form. In order to gain this respect, quality must be the criteria for artistic acceptance: quality in teaching, in creativity, in design and in workmanship

As a instructor I offer project, notebook and process workshops in Canvas embroidery at the basic, intermediate and advanced levels of instruction in both online and conventional workshop settings. My workshops cover a wide range of canvas and related embroidery techniques including:

- Traditional and Contemporary Canvas Embroidery
- Beadwork
- Colour and Design
- Counted Thread Embroidery
- Silk and Metal Thread Embroidery
- Mixed Media
- Conservation of Textiles

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

I have conducted workshops and lectures at national, regional and local levels for...

- American Needlepoint Guild
- Needlework Summit
- Embroiderers' Association of Canada
- Embroiderers' Guild of America
- Callaway Gardens
- Olds College
- Chapter/Guild in Canada, the United States and Bermuda

I have conducted cyber workshops for....

- American Needlepoint Guild
- Needle Artworks

I have exhibited, demonstrated and conducted workshops at trade shows in Canada, the United States and Europe including....

- "Stitches" Needlework Show - Birmingham, England
- Handarbeit - Dusseldorf, Germany
- HIA-Euro International Trade Fair - Maastricht, The Netherlands
- The National Needlework Association (TNNA) - United States
- Creative Sewing & Needlecraft Festival (CSNF) - Canada

PUBLICATIONS

Articles and designs have been published by....

- Piecework
- Stitch with the Embroiderers' Guild
- needlepoint now
- Mary Hickmott's New Stitches
- Needlepoint Plus
- McCall's Needlework
- Better Homes & Gardens
- Embroidery Canada

Author of, and counselor for, the Intermediate and Advanced Level Correspondence Courses in Canvas Embroidery for the Embroiderers' Association of Canada.

Associate producer of a 4-part cable television series on embroidery.

AFFILIATIONS

- Embroiderers Association of Canada
- Embroiderers Guild of America
- American Needlepoint Guild
- National Embroidery Teachers Association

PLEASE FEEL FREE TO CALL OR WRITE FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO SCHEDULE YOUR EVENT.